

Materialism

PHL 201
Introduction to Philosophy
Lecture Thirty

Materialism

- Monism
- Mind as machine
- Cognitive science
- Free will?
- Life after death?
- Problem of consciousness

PHIL 101 Self, World, & God

History of Materialism

- Greeks
- Early modern philosophy
- Nineteenth Century
 - Birth of psychology
 - Neuroanatomy
- Twentieth Century
 - Freud
 - Behaviorism
 - Identity theory
 - Functionalism
 - Cognitive science

Cognitive Science

- Conferences in the 1950s
- Interdisciplinary
 - Psychology
 - Computer science
 - Linguistics
 - Philosophy
 - Anthropology
 - Evolutionary biology
 - Neuroscience

Francis Crick

- 1916 – 2004
- Physics
- WW II
- Biology
- DNA
- Neuroscience

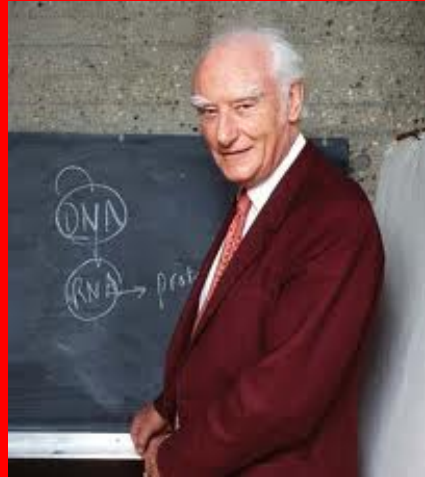

Neuroscience

- Nineteenth Century
- WW I
- Trauma and behavior
- Brain structure
- Parallel processing
- Modularity
- A science of consciousness?

The Astonishing Hypothesis

- 1994
- Read
- Identity theory
- Scientific hypothesis
- “Easy” problems
- “Hard” problems
- Problem of consciousness
- Scientific problem
- Free will
- Personal identity

PHIL 101 Self, World, & God

Regarding Henry

- Henry's two injuries
- Amnesia
- Phineas Gage
- Damasio's patient
- Pre-frontal injuries
- Personality
- How realistic?
- Critical praise
- Critical complaints

Sample Question

What is the mind/body problem. Discuss the pros and cons of both dualism and materialism as “solutions” to the mind body problem. Which theory do you endorse? Why?